Mrs. Boy's Recipe A Joy For Calorie Counters Too

Mrs. Norman Boy, 17025 Haas Ave., as today's guest cook, has contributed her family's favorite recipe which can be enjoyed by those who like it rich or those calorie counters. The Norman Boys are natives of the southwest district and theirs is a Dorsey High school romance. They have four children, Greg, 9, Nancy, 7, Ricky, 6 and Lynn, 2. Mr. Boy works for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in the Compton office.

Mrs. Boy is the first vice president of the Casimir Elementary PTA and is second vice president of the North Torrance Little League Women's auxiliary. Mr. Boy is a team manager.

Today's guest is past president of Eta Mu, Torrance chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

The Boys are Dodger fans and enjoy all sports attending as many football and baseball games as possible. They also bowl once a week.

Mrs. Boy's Favorite Recipe, a Frozen Fruit Salad, follows:

Frozen Fruit Salad
1 large can fruit cocktail ¼ c. mayonnaise
1 tsp. unflavored gelatin Dash of salt
2 tsp. lemon juice ½ pt. whipping cream
1 3-oz. pkg cream cheese ½ c. chopped nuts
Drain fruit, soften gelatin in lemon juice and dissolve over hot water. Blend cheese and mayonnaise. Whip cream. Fold all ingredients together and place in individual molds. Freeze.

Mrs. Boy's tip for those counting calories is to substitute ¼ cup powdered milk and ¼ cup ice water whipped until stiff.

She also suggests using cup cake papers for molding the salad as they are easy to remove.

Camp Fire Girls Dolly Derby Set For Nov. 27

Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds, and Horizon Club girls throughout the Los Angeles Area Council are dressing dolls to aid handicapped men and women employed at non-profit Goodwill Industries. More than 500 outfitted dolls will be returned to Goodwill Industries on Nov. 20.

Following a day-long Dolly Derby at Goodwill Industries on Friday, Nov. 27, the dolls will be placed on sale in three Goodwill stores, with funds from their sale used to provide special rehabilitation and medical services to the handicapped at Goodwill.

Mrs. E. W. Rakestraw, Program Committee chairman for the Los Angeles Area Council of Camp Fire Girls, states that this project was chosen for the girls to make them aware of the need for the conservation of human resources. Camp Fire Girls throughout the nation are engaged in a three-year conservation project titled "The World Around Her, She Cares - Do You?" The Dolly Derby project begins with girls touring the workshops at Goodwill Industries, seeing how handicapped people perform jobs and are self-supporting.

Dolls for the project were repaired and cleaned by the workers at Goodwill Industries. They are dolls that were donated by the public over the past several weeks. Next year's Dolly Derby will be held with dolls donated by Camp Fire Girls. All girls have been asked to donate one old doll after Christmas, which will be restored at Goodwill and readied for the 1960 Dolly Derby.

The fair provides chief support for the home where small patients requiring long convalescence from serious illness are cared for. The home, unlike the hospital, does not receive Community Chest aid.

The fair is sponsored by nearly 50 guilds and auxiliaries. Numerous booths include a variety of items for sale such as food and gifts. Entertainment for children will also be provided.

Local Tri Deltas will be in charge of the popcorn booth and in addition will dress dolls for the doll booth, according to Mrs. Edward B. Wilder, chapter president. Persons interested in attending are advised that child care will be available at the fair site. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Edward Wilder.
